

BIODEGRADABLE MATTRESSES FOR EROSION CONTROL

- made of straw, jute, wool or coir, fibers, decompose naturally, without affecting soil; by decomposition and due to high water retention capacity, helping to develop vegetation, which leads to the protection and consolidation of slopes and degraded soils;
- Function: erosion control, landscaping.

ECO

THIA